

Activities

The department is conducting patient education programs on the occasion of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgeon Day and also celebrates various festivals such as Holi, Diwali, and Independence Day etc with the students and patients. The department organizes various CDE programs at the institutional and state level for the training of UG and PG students.